UNCLE SAM TO TRY ALVORD. State Will Hand the $690,000 Thief Over to the Federal Authorities.

Cornellus L. Alvord, Jr., accused of stealing $700,000 from the First National Bank, will be turned over to the United States authorities to-day and arraigned for examination before United States Commissioner Shields. District Attorney Gardiner has agreed to surrender the prisoner, although he is still of the opinion that the State authorities have jurisdiction in the case. He said yesterday that he had made arrangements with United States District Attorney Henry A. Burnett to turn Alvord over to United States Marshal Henkel so that Alvord's case might be disposed of in the United to the Centre street court yesterday. Col. Gardiner and Gea. Burnett told Magistrate Flammer that they would like to have his examination postponed until an agreement had been reached about the jurisdiction.

Magistrate Flammer was still of the opinion that Alvord ought to be brought into his court. He asked to see a copy of the complaint. He found that it was made on information furnished to United States Commissioner Shields by Fisher A. Baker counsel to the First National Bank. Mr. Baser alleged that on or about the 22d of October, Alvord, as teller of the bank, had embezzled $700,000 of the bank's funds and had made talse entries in the books of the banking association to cover up the embezzleand had made false entries in the books of the banking association to cover up the embezzlement with intent to detraud the bank. This is a complaint for embezzlement under the National Banking act. After looking over a copy of the complaint and examining the warrant the Magistrate said that he would postrone the hearing until to-day.

Later in the day District Attorney Gardiner announced that he would see that Alvord was turned over to the Federal District Attorney to-day. He said he and Mr. Burnett had come to that agreement and that Alvord would be arraigned in the Centre street court and turned over to United States Marshal Henkel. Then Alvord will shift to Ludlow Street Jail.

THINKS HE MAY OWN HOBOKEN Ohio Man Writes for Facts Concerning Had-

County Register James C Clarke of Jerse City received a letter yesterday from Edward A Bonfield of Shelby, O, asking for recordconcerning the ownership of "a good part of Hoboken" for the past century. Mr. Bonfield said that Frederic Austin, one of his ancestors, owned a large tract of land in that city in the latter part of the eighteenth century, which was never transferred nor sold. Austin moved away, he said, and squatters settled on the land. Mr Bonfield asked the Register to furnish him with a description of the property, when it was sold or granted to his ancestor.

The records in the Register's office show that the lands embracing the present city of Hoboken, which originally belonged to William Bayard, were deeded to the Stevens family on July 28, 1784, by Cornelius Hareing, United States agent of forfeited estates. concerning the ownership of "a good part of

CHICAGO AND GRAND TRUNK SOLD Stockholders Bid In the Road in Foreclosure Proceedings.

PORT HURON, Mich., Oct. 31.—The Chicago and Grand Trunk Railroad was sued to-day under first mortgage foreclosure proceedings brought by the Mercantile Trust Company of New York, in accordance with a decree of the New York, in accordance with a decree of the United States District Court. General Manager C. M. Hays and F. W. Meddaugh of Detroit, representing the stockholders of the road, were the only bidders, the road being sold to them for $5,708,701.04. Of this amount $5,437,600 recresented the mortgages and $271,701.04 was interest. Walter Harsha of Detroit, Special Master Commissioner, conducted the sale, which occupied ten minutes.

Notes of Wall Street News.

The steamship Teutonic, which arrived from Europe yesterday, brought $1,250,000 in gold consigned to Lazard Frères and $1,000,000 in gold consigned to the Western National Bank. W. H. Baldwin, Jr., and W. H. McIntyre were elected directors of the Equitable Life Assurance Society yesterday. Mr. Baldwin is Presiance Society yesterday. Mr. Baldwin is President of the Long Island Railroad Company and closely connected with the important railroad interests of the Eas. Mr. McIntyre has for over twenty years occupied a confidential position with the society and was for many years private secretary of the late Henry B. Hyde, President and founder of the society.

There were rumors in Wall Street yesterday of possible changes among the officers of the Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad Company. One report was that President N. Baxter, Jr., was to tetire, and that A. M. Crano of Chicago, assistant to the chairman of the Board of Directors of the American Steel and Wire Company, was to take his place.

outhern Pacific Dividend at Present One of the most persistent of the Wall Stree rumors relating to the Southern Pacific Rail road is that the directors are about to resume the payments of dividends on the stock. There the highest authority for the statement that this rumor is baseless. The directors have no this rumor is baseless. The directors have not even considered the question of dividends, and there is no expectation that they will do so for some time to come. There is no disposition on the part of the present Southern Pacific management to depart from the late President suntington's policy of getting the property into theroughly first-class shape before resuming dividend payments. A meeting of the directors will be held to-morrow to elect Charles M. Hays President of the company.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

The indications that were discernible since the beginning of the week that the market for securities would become quiet during the final days of the political campaign were borne out by to-day's market. The dealings in stocks were the smallest since the upward movement egan about three weeks ago. Brokers as a rule are apparently well satisfied that their customers are indisposed to increase their risks pending the ejection and that some of them have reduced their commitments. In some cases trading has been restricted by timid commission houses that have requested their clients to either take up their stocks or margin them to an unusual extent over election day. The adoption of this policy has doubtless caused moderate liquidation of speculative holdings. In addition to the circumstances already noted, the trading was cuttailed by the inaction of London, owing to the fact that to-morrow is a Bink holiday at that centre, and in consequence the Stock Exchange there will be closed. Another diverting influence was the attention given by many brokers to decorating the interior o the local exchange, preliminary to the sound money parade on Saturday.

During the first half of the day the tone o the market was very firm and prices advanced fractionally under the lead of Sugar Refining and Southern Pacific. After some of the trader had ranged themselves upon the long side the market became dull and continued so until the last hour, when the absence of business and evidence of the disposition of important interests to leave the speculation to itself for time induced the traders to attack values. They succeeded in lowering the prices of the majority of the list fractionally, but apparently did not bring out stocks to any amount. the only noteworthy net decline was that of 15 per cent, in Tennessee Coal on light trans The selling was due in part to rumors of impending changes in the executive staff of the company. There was a sudden demand for Jersey Central that lifted the price of that stock be per cent. The market as a whole was more largely professional than it has been of late, hence the fluctuations cannot be regarded as Additional amounts of gold were received from Europe to-day, making the total imports since the present movement began $5,381,000. This leaves the amount in transit about $5,000. 000. The Sub-Treasury was again a debtor at the Clearing House to-day to the extent of nearly $724,000. As the greater part of the $3,000,000 of interest payable on Government bonds to-morrow will be disbursed at this centre the banks will probably continue to gain currency from the Sub-Treasury for several days to come. Although the stock market sold off in the late trading, the tone at the close must be described as in the main firm.
